Prillaman's Crane and Rigging on Achieves CCO EDU Accreditation

Palm Harbor, FL – August 5, 2025– CCO Education Services LLC (CCO EDU) is pleased to extend its heartfelt congratulations to Prillaman's Crane and Rigging for successfully achieving accreditation through the Accredited Training Provider (ATP) program.

The ATP program developed by CCO EDU represents a rigorous standard for training providers that are preparing candidates for CCO Certification. Prillaman's Crane and Rigging has demonstrated its commitment to excellence by meeting the standard established by CCO EDU, distinguishing itself as a leader in the industry.

"We are delighted to recognize Prillaman's Crane and Rigging for their dedication to upholding the highest standards of training," said CEO Thom Sicklesteel. "By achieving accreditation, [Prillaman's Crane and Rigging has showcased its commitment to safety, professionalism, and continuous improvement in the industry."

The accreditation underscores the value and importance of quality training in enhancing safety standards for individuals working in and around load handling equipment. CCO EDU applauds Prillaman's Crane and Rigging for its dedication to excellence and its contribution to advancing safety within the industry. CCO EDU ATPs can be counted on as a trusted source of training for those seeking CCO certification.
